

Parents Weekend 2003
November 7 - 9, 2003
Indiana University – Bloomington Campus

Friday, November 7

Information Table, 3 – 6 p.m., East Lounge, mezzanine level, Indiana Memorial Union.
Pick up information about what's happening during Parents Weekend.

Wylie House Tour, 10 a.m.– 2 p.m., 317 E. Second Street

Take a tour of one of Bloomington's oldest surviving structures. Wylie House was built in 1835 as the home of IU's first president, Andrew Wylie. Call (812) 855-6224 for more information.

Lilly Library Tour, 4:00 p.m., East 7th Street

The Lilly Library, IU's rare book and manuscript library, has more than 400,000 rare books and 6,000,000 manuscript pieces. Selections from the library's collections will be exhibited. Library hours are Friday 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturday, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Main Library, Tenth and Jordan Streets

Twenty-first century college students access information in ways that twentieth century students could have never imagined. Visit the new Information Commons (IC) in the west tower of the Main Library to see how the IUB Libraries have transformed information access, research and learning. The IC is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Division of Recreational Sports SRSC and HPER Tours, Informal tours, 10am - 8pm, Friday through Sunday, SRSC lobby and HPER Wildermuth Gymnasium

Tour and work out at one of the country's leading campus recreational sports facilities. The 204,000 sq-ft Student Recreational Sports Center, built at a cost of $22.5 million, has been one of the most active places on campus since it opened its doors in July 1995. SRSC highlights include the Councilman/Billingsley Aquatic Center, three multi-sport gymnasiums, elevated running track and a strength and conditioning room equipped with over 400 pieces of cardiovascular and weight-training equipment. At the School of Health, Physical Education and Recreation Building, explore the historic Wildermuth Gymnasium, visit the Royer Pool where legendary Olympic champion Mark Spitz trained, or take a walk around Woodlawn Field and the sprawling tennis courts. Parents, when accompanied by their son or daughter who is enrolled in IUB, can use the facilities for free this weekend. Valid student ID is required. Siblings can purchase a day pass. Age policies apply. The SRSC is open Friday, 6am-9pm; Saturday, 8am-9pm; Sunday, 8am-11:30pm; The HPER is open Friday, 11am-9pm; Saturday, 8am-9pm; Sunday 8am-11:30pm. Visit "www.recsports.indiana.edu" for details.

The Kinsey Institute Tour, 3:00, p.m., 313 Morrison Hall

Established in 1947 by Dr. Alfred Kinsey, The Kinsey Institute for Research in Sex, Gender and Reproduction currently holds the original interview data, over 7,000 original works of art, 75,000 photographic images dating from 1880 to present, and artifacts over 2,000 years of history. The library holds nearly 90,000 books, journal and magazines. Tours include an overview of current research and a walk through the library and art gallery. For more information visit www.kinseyinstitute.org. Call 812-855-7686 to reserve space as tour size is limited.

Helene G. Simon Hillel Center, 730 E. Third Street, 812-336-3824, email

hillel@indiana.edu, Shabbat Services and Dinner. Shabbat observance begins at 5:30 when we welcome Shabbat together at Reform, Conservative and Orthodox services. A home made Shabbat dinner is served at 6:30 p.m. Dinner is $10 for parents, $7 for students and siblings, and $5 for students with a Discover Hillel card. Call for reservations or walk-ins also welcome.

Volleyball: Indiana vs. Penn State, 7:00pm, University Gymnasium, 10th & 46 Bypass

The Hoosiers and the Nittany Lions square off in a Big Ten battle. IU volleyball is a fun and affordable event for the whole family. Tickets are $5 for adults, $3 youth, and IU Students are free with their student ID. Tickets are available at the door.

Men's Basketball, I.U. vs. Athletes in Action, time TBA, Assembly Hall

Tickets are available by calling the Athletics ticket office at the toll free number 866-IUSPORTS. Ticket prices are TBA. For more information about IU sports check the website at www.IUHoosiers.com.

Saturday, November 8

Information Table, 9 a.m. to Noon, East Lounge, mezzanine level, Indiana Memorial Union. Pick information about what's happening during Parents Weekend.

Academic Open Houses/Tours, 9 – 11 a.m.

Attend an academic open house hosted by one of IU's National renowned schools or the Main Library. Academic open houses may include refreshments, tours, sample classes, panel discussions, and a dean's presentation. Each program will vary, and all sessions are free of charge. All sessions begin at 9 a.m. unless otherwise noted.

College of Arts and Sciences, location TBA

School of Education, Wendell Wright Education Building atrium

Kelley School of Business, Hall of Honors, second floor, 9:00 to 10:30 a.m.

Dean Dan Dalton will speak at 10:00 a.m.

School of Journalism, Ernie Pyle Hall, main office
School of Public and Environmental Affairs, SPEA atrium

Main Library, Tenth and Jordan Streets

Twenty-first century college students access information in ways that twentieth century students could have never imagined. Visit the new Information Commons (IC) in the west tower of the Main Library to see how the IUB Libraries have transformed information access, research and learning. The IC is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Helene G. Simon Hillel Center, “Your Jewish home away from home” Brunch and Open House 10:00 a.m. to Noon, 730 E. Third Street. Call 812-336-3824 or email hillel@ameritech.net for reservations. Tour the beautiful facility and enjoy a complimentary brunch with other Jewish students and their families. Come see what makes Indiana Hillel one of the most exciting Hillel programs in the country.

Wylie House Tour, 10 a.m. – 2 p.m., 317 E. Second Street

Take a tour of one of Bloomington’s oldest surviving structures. Wylie House was built in 1835 as the home of IU’s first president, Andrew Wylie. Call (812) 855-6224 for more information.

Lilly Library Tour, 10:00 a.m., East 7th Street

The Lilly Library, IU’s rare book and manuscript library, has more than 400,000 rare books and 6,000,000 manuscript pieces. Selections from the library’s collections will be exhibited. Library hours are Friday 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturday, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Neal Marshall Black Culture Center, 10:00 a.m. – 12 Noon., 275 North Jordan Ave. 855-9271; email nmbcc@indiana.edu.

Tour the Center, enjoy food, music, exhibits and networking with other parents, students, faculty and staff. Call or email for more information.

IU Art Museum Tour, 2- 3 p.m., East 7th Street,” www.indiana.edu/~iuam”

Guides are available for a tour of the IU Art Museum, which is ranked among the foremost university art museums in the country. Three floors of the permanent collection house the arts of Western civilization, Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and the ancient Americas. Museum hours during the weekend are Friday and Saturday 10 a.m. – 5 p.m., and Sunday, Noon – 5 p.m.

Parents Association Hospitality Tent, two hours prior to kickoff, Memorial Stadium*
All parents are invited to join us for a pre-game gathering under a tent on the east side of the stadium. Look for our Parents Association sign. All IU parents and families are invited. Enjoy complimentary refreshments and visit with campus officials and Parents Association Board members.

Big Red Warm-Up, 11 a.m. – 1 p.m., Virgil T. DeVault Alumni Center, 1000 E. 17th St.
Stop by and tour the Alumni Association's home across from Assembly Hall. With refreshments, music, and plenty of Hoosier spirit, it's a winning combination! (If game time changes, the event will begin two hours prior to kick-off.)

Football: I.U. vs. Illinois, 1:00 Memorial Stadium (time subject to change)
Come out and cheer the Hoosiers as they take on the Illinois Fighting Illini at Memorial Stadium. There is nothing better than spending a Saturday afternoon with your family and attending a Big Ten football game. Tickets range from $35 each and can be purchased by calling the I.U. Athletics ticket office at 1-866-IUSPORTS or (812) 855-4006. Check the website at www.iuhoosiers.com for more information on athletic events.

Volleyball: Indiana vs. Ohio State, 7:00pm, University Gymnasium, 10th & 46 Bypass
The Hoosiers are back in action when they take on the Buckeyes. Cap off your athletics weekend by getting out and showing your support for the IU volleyball team as they make a push for an NCAA berth. Admission is $5 adults, $3 youth, and IU Students are free with their student ID.

Sunday, November 9

Sunday Morning Brunch, * 10:30 a.m. – 2 p.m., Tudor Room, Indiana Memorial Union
No weekend visit to IUB is complete without brunch at the Tudor Room. Located on the first floor of the IMU, the Tudor Room provides a formal or casual dining atmosphere. Advance reservations are strongly encouraged and can be made by calling (812) 855-1620.

Main Library, Tenth and Jordan Streets
Twenty-first century college students access information in ways that twentieth century students could have never imagined. Visit the new Information Commons (IC) in the west tower of the Main Library to see how the IUB Libraries have transformed information access, research and learning. The IC is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

IU Art Museum Tour, 2- 3 p.m., East 7th Street
Guides are available for a tour of the IU Art Museum, which is ranked among the foremost university art museums in the country. Three floors of the permanent collection house the arts of Western civilization, Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and the ancient Americas. Museum hours during the weekend are Friday and Saturday 10 a.m. – 5 p.m., and Sunday, Noon – 5 p.m.

Indicates charge for admission.

*Time subject to change. In the event of a change in the starting time of the I.U. vs. Illinois football game, most events will begin two hours prior to kickoff.

Parents Weekend is sponsored by:

IUB Parents Association –

Sponsored jointly by the Division of Student Affairs, the IU Foundation, and the IU Alumni Association. The IU Parents Association offers families information about IU's programs, facilities, services and campus. (812-855-8187) email to philli@indiana.edu or mykidis@indiana.edu.

Hotels, Motels, Bed & Breakfasts –

Hotel rooms in Bloomington are limited. Please call the Convention and Visitors Bureau for hotel availability and phone numbers at 800-800-0037 or visit their Website at www.visitbloomington.com.

Last updated 7.14.03